

Manuscript Template Instructions

This template is provided to give authors a basic shell for preparing your manuscript for submittal to a meeting or event. Styles have been included to give you a basic idea of how your finalized paper will look before it is published. All manuscripts submitted to will be extracted from this template and tagged into an XML format; standardized styles and fonts will be used when laying out the final manuscript. Links will be added to your manuscript for references, tables, and equations. Figures and tables should be placed directly after the first paragraph they are mentioned in. The content of your paper WILL NOT be changed.

1.0 Accessing the Manuscript Template

Click on the Manuscript Template link under the Templates headline in the author kit link. This will bring up a ManuscriptTemplate.zip file to open or save to your computer. Unzip the ManuscriptTemplate.zip file and extract the file ManuscriptTemplate.dotx.

Find the file you extracted on your computer and double-click on it. A [] screen will ask for your paper number, type it in and select OK. Next a screen will ask for your paper title, and then another screen will ask for the author names and company affiliations.

After you have finished creating your paper, when you create a PDF or try to print, the template may ask to confirm your paper number, title, and author name(s). Double check that all information is correct before continuing.

2.0 Headers

If you are using the Manuscript Template the headers will automatically be created.

Page numbers and headings, in 8-point Arial, should appear on Page 2 and all subsequent pages.

On even-numbered pages, this should include the page number flush left and the manuscript number flush right, with a 1/2-point rule underneath.

3.0 Styles

We have provided format styles for Word. In the Styles Pane, you must select the drop down menu next to “List” and select “In Current Document”. If the you select the text in the manuscript, then select the Head1 style, it will apply all the necessary formatting to the text. For instance, a Head1 (the first headline of a paragraph) is 14 pt. Arial Bold font.

Keep in mind that it is not necessary to match the fonts and styles exactly, your content will be converted to xml and standard styles will be applied to the final manuscript.

This section will give you a definition of each style, followed by any information that will be useful to note when applying. We have used Arial and Times New Roman fonts for this template.

4.0 Tables

Cite all tables in numerical order in the body of the paper. Number them with Arabic, not Roman, numerals. Table titles and column headings should be as concise as possible. Use 8-pt Arial Bold for table title and 8-pt Arial for the body copy. Align columns with either tabs or spaces, not a mixture of both. Try to avoid any arrangement that unduly increases the depth of a table.

5.0 Figures

FigCaptions

8-pt Arial Bold, centered, hyphenation off. Cite all figures in numerical order in the body of the paper. Number them with Arabic, not Roman, numerals.

Figures should be centered on their own line following the first paragraph they are mentioned in.
